

The undersigned Client:

herewith appoints and grants powers to:

(hereinafter referred to as 'the Attorney' or 'the Law Firm') with full power of substitution, to represent and to assist the client in relation to the following matter:

as well as for any related, parallel or subsequent mandates.

The Attorney or the Law Firm shall have full power and authority to act on the client's behalf to do whatever he/she considers necessary or appropriate for the carrying out of the mandate.

More specifically, the Attorney or the Law Firm may notably: (I) represent the Client before any court, authority, administration, or arbitral tribunal, at any official or private assembly, and before any insurance company, bank, security broker, Swiss or foreign institution, and/or any third party; (II) sign any and all deeds, agreements, contracts, documents and requests on behalf of the Client; (III) take all necessary steps for initiating and conducting any proceedings until a final judgment is rendered; (IV) negotiate and conclude any settlements, entirely or partly waive claims or acquiesce to claims; (V) receive all payments, monies, values, securities and other objects of any kind, etc.

Any person or authority subject to official or professional confidentiality (including medical or banking confidentiality), or bound by legal or contractual obligations of discretion or confidentiality, is hereby released from such duty in favor of the Attorney or the Law Firm under this power of attorney. This release also authorizes the Attorney or the Law Firm to obtain any personal data, including sensitive data, concerning the Client from any data controller.

The Client undertakes to pay to the Attorney or the Law Firm all retainers necessary for the carrying out of the mandate. The Client undertakes to reimburse any expenses, costs or advances incurred by the Attorney or the Law Firm, as well as to pay his fees.

The Client is informed that the Attorney and the Law Firm process and retain all data, including personal data, necessary for the execution of the mandate. Such data will generally be retained for 10 years after the end of the mandate, or up to 20 years in the event of litigation related to bodily injury. These data may be accessible to subcontractors of the Attorney or the Law Firm, particularly IT providers, subject to the implementation of appropriate security and organizational measures to preserve data confidentiality. The Client may at any time request access to, rectification, deletion, or transfer of his/her data by contacting the Attorney or the Law Firm.

This Power of Attorney shall not be terminated by the Client's death, or the latter's declaration of absence, civil incapacity or bankruptcy.

With respect to any dispute that might arise from this mandate, as well as from any related, parallel or subsequent mandates, the Client explicitly accepts the exclusive jurisdiction of the Geneva Courts and the application of Swiss Law.
